2nd Annual Tropicana's Jersey Shore Wine Festival Hits the Boardwalk

300 New Jersey wines to be showcased at July 12 and July 13 event

ATLANTIC CITY, NJ (May 19, 2014) — Wine connoisseurs and casual sippers alike are invited to the second annual Tropicana's Jersey Shore Wine Festival, Saturday, July 12 and Sunday July 13, 2014 at Tropicana Casino & Resort. The festival, which celebrates wines from across the state of New Jersey, will take place from 12 p.m. to 6 p.m. each day on the Boardwalk in front of Tropicana.

"This two-day festival is fast becoming one of Tropicana's signature events. It's an exciting opportunity to enjoy the world famous Atlantic City boardwalk and the fine wines that are produced right here in New Jersey," said Steve Callender, General Manager of Tropicana Casino & Resort.

Guests may sample 300 of New Jersey's most popular wines (also available for purchase by the bottle or case), while strolling the boards and enjoying live entertainment. Tropicana's boardwalk eateries including Casa Taco & Tequila Bar, Perry's Pizza, Tony Luke's, and Chickie's & Pete's are convenient stops to grab a quick bite before sampling away. The weekend also will include art, craft and jewelry vendors.

Participating wineries include: Amalthea Cellars, Auburn Road Vineyards, Bellview Winery, Cava Winery, Chestnut Run Farm, DiMatteo Vineyards, Monroeville Vineyard, Natali Vineyards, Plagido's Winery, Renault Winery, Salem Oak Vineyards, Sharrott Winery, Southwind Vineyard, Tomasello Winery, Unionville Vineyards, Valenzano Winery, Wagonhouse Winery
