THE QUARTER AT TROPICANA IN ATLANTIC CITY FEATURES SIZZLING ENTERTAINMENT OPTIONS

ATLANTIC CITY, NJ – The Quarter at the Tropicana Casino and Resort offers eight red-hot entertainment options. In addition to offering guests an unprecedented selection of night club and entertainment venues, The Quarter, which brings to life the exotic splendor of Old Havana in a life-like, three-story streetscape, is home to a stunning array of world-class restaurants, chic and cultured retail and the most lavish and luxuriant spa facility in Atlantic City.

“Under one roof The Quarter hosts Atlantic City’s best nightlife,” said Mark Giannantonio, president and chief operating officer of Tropicana Casino and Resort. “This is a revolutionary concept. No other resort in the city is able to match the quantity and quality of entertainment options at The Quarter will present to guests.”

The stellar line-up of entertainment venues in The Quarter and Tropicana include:

32° Luxe Lounge: This deluxe lounge, which features European-style bottle service, exceptionally attentive staff, state-of-the-art sound system, the finest spirits available and drinks served in glasses made of solid ice, has quickly become the hippest hangout in Atlantic City.

A Dam Good Sports Bar: Offers 15 televisions, including two 110” projection screens and the only billiards room in an Atlantic City casino, Wilson’s, there is always a game to be had. A Dam Good Sports Bar is located on the third floor of The Quarter and seats 229.

Alto Vino Wine Bar at Top of The Trop: Atlantic City’s premier wine bar, Alto Vino boasts breathtaking views sweeping the city line, beaches and Boardwalk from its 20th floor location. In addition to an exceptionally prepared wine list, Alto Vino features an Italian inspired small plates menu and live entertainment nightly.

Cuba Libre Restaurant & Rum Bar: After dinner hours, guests delight in dazzling floor shows, authentic salsa and Latino music, as well as dancing and dance instruction spread out over two stories.

Firewaters: Whether it's that hard-to-find LaChouffe or a Triple Karmeliet, Firewaters is famous for importing beers from around the world to Atlantic City. One-hundred-and-one beer varieties and a fabulous martini bar (shaken, stirred, olive or onion—Firewaters serves up a mean martini) make Firewaters the place for a night on the town. Add in a one-of-a-kind ice wall and a lively dance floor, and the result is night club nirvana. 609.344.6699

IMAX® Theatre at Tropicana: With its gigantic 70' x 50' screen, roughly three-fourths the size of a football field, the IMAX® Theater is the region's largest movie screen and Atlantic City's only movie theater. Guests are able to enjoy mesmerizing IMAX® Theater features, the latest Hollywood blockbusters and major sporting events on the giant screen.

Planet Rose: Deliberately garish with décor that combines Berlin decadence, Tokyo pop and American cheese, this quirky homage to the fine art of karaoke brings out the best and worst interpretations of popular music.

Providence: The New York City nightclub is now open and the hottest spot to party in Atlantic City. Featuring top-name DJ's in two elevated DJ towers, Providence will keep the energy high with a back and forth dance mix throughout the night.

Red Square: On weekend nights, starting at 12 am, Red Square turns into one of The Quarter's favorite party spots. Dance all night and check out the impressive frozen ice bar, which measures 40 feet, will serve the finest selection of more than 120 frozen vodkas, infusions and martinis. 609.344.9100.

Ri Ra Irish Pub and Restaurant: With salvaged materials, re-claimed, re-assembled and imported from the Emerald Isle, Ri Ra recreates a fully unadulterated, authentic Irish pub experience, complete with traditional Irish music and dancing.

Rumba Lounge: There's more fun as you play your favorite bar-top video poker slots along with great drinks served by a friendly staff. And all of this is just steps away from exciting table game action! The Rumba Lounge is open seven days a week so you always know there's a place you can go when you want a refreshing drink or jolt of excitement. It features a full panoramic view of the pulse-pounding action on the surrounding gaming floor along with Plasma TVs throughout so you never miss any of the action from your favorite sporting events. Every weekend, we offer the kind of exciting entertainment that keeps you coming back for more.

Tango's: Bringing the look, feel and laid-back vibe of the Caribbean to Atlantic City, this tropical paradise features the best in live reggae, salsa and jazz on a nightly basis.
