Audiences should prepare for a session they will never forget
Robin Thicke will perform at Tropicana Casino & Resort,
March 13

ATLANTIC CITY, NJ (February 9, 2010) – From a beautiful world, to an evolution to something else and now a little sex therapy, audiences will be in for one memorable session. Therapist, teacher, Grammy award winner, actor, producer, however you choose to categorize him, Robin Thicke is in the Showroom at Tropicana on Saturday, March 13. Tickets for Robin Thicke go on sale Friday, February 12.

Thicke has been the recipient of three Grammys awards, and has written and produced for Michael Jackson, Lil' Wayne, Mary J. Blige, Christina Aguilera, Pink, Marc Anthony and Jennifer Hudson, ultimately contributing to more than 40 gold and platinum records by other artists. His breakthrough single, "Lost Without You," and album The Evolution of Robin Thicke, both went platinum. Thicke toured with Beyonce, Mary J. Blige and Maxwell, and been a guest on Oprah Winfrey's show three times.

For the first time, Thicke is leavening his classic soul sound with more contemporary R&B, Rock, Electronic and hip-hop influences and collaborators on his most recent album Sex Therapy: The Session. Featuring artists Jay-Z, Nikki Minaj, Kid Cudi, Estelle, Snoop Dogg, and Game, Sex Therapy: The Session features everything from instruction on the sexiness to an exploration of a deeper connection.
