Barenaked Ladies Take Their Headline Tour to Tropicana Casino & Resort, May 8

Performance is Part of the Trop Rocks Entertainment Series

Atlantic City, NJ (March 18, 2010) – Acclaimed multi-platinum pop-rock group Barenaked Ladies launch their U.S. tour in support of the new release of their 11th studio album, “All in Good Time,” at Tropicana Casino & Resort on Saturday, May 8, 2010.

Over the course of the past twenty-one years, Barenaked Ladies have racked up a half-dozen Juno Awards and multiple Grammy nominations, sold more than 14 million albums worldwide and written a plethora of hit singles including “One Week,” “Pinch Me” and “If I Had $1000000.”

Their playful hits have amassed an international fan base whose members number in the millions. The band also wrote and recorded the theme song to the hit CBS television series, “The Big Bang Theory.”

“This is a really important record for us and we’re really proud of it,” said BNL guitarist and vocalist Ed Robertson of their new album, “All in Good Time.” “We’re redefining who we are, and how we communicate as a band, and as friends. The album has an emotional rawness to it that we may have shied away from in the past. I think we pushed ourselves to heavier places, and also allowed for some really spacious moments. We can’t wait to play these songs live.”

Tickets to the May 8 Barenaked Ladies performance at Tropicana Casino & Resort go on sale starting March 20 at noon. The ticket price, which ranges from $48 to $68. Limited preferred seating is available. Every online transaction includes a download of the new album, “All In Good Time”, available on Tuesday March 30th in the U.S.. Tickets are available at the Tropicana Box Office and by calling Ticketmaster at 1-800-745-3000 or online at www.ticketmaster.com.
