It's A Nonstop Party When Smash Mouth Performs at Tropicana Casino & Resort July 31

Atlantic City, NJ (June 7, 2010) - The California-based band Smash Mouth will bring their pop-rock party to the Tropicana performing live in the Tropicana Showroom on Saturday, July 31 at 9pm.

Smash Mouth emerged on the scene in 1997 with their rock hits "Walkin' on the Sun" and "All Star." Their unique 60's influenced, garage band sound has made them a multi platinum sensation since their breakout album. Smash Mouth have consistently impacted radio with other hits like "Then the Morning Comes," "Can't Get Enough of You Baby" and a cover of The Monkees classic "I'm a Believer," featured on the Shrek soundtrack.

Having long since established itself as the ultimate true-to-life California party band, the vibe surrounding Smash Mouth live in concert is all about having fun. According to band member Steve Harwell, "The band has grown over the years and has reached a level of maturity and clarity."

Fans will no doubt have a chance to share "the good times" with Smash Mouth as they travel across the country from coast to coast and at Tropicana on July 31st. Their live show will be the complete package and the band promises to be a unique, nonstop party. Smash Mouth's new album is due out sometime this year.
