Kool 98.3 Presents The Romantics at the Tropicana June 22nd

Atlantic City, NJ (May 9, 2012) – The Romantics are best known for their hit songs “What I like about You” and “Talking in your Sleep” which have bridged generations. This 80’s American New Wave group is sure to continue the trend with their high energy performance at the Tropicana on Friday, June 22nd presented by Kool 98.3 South Jersey’s Greatest Hits.

Ironically enough the Romantics were formed on Valentine’s Day in 1977, yet they were bred on the mean streets of Detroit’s East Side. With British punk and rock inspiration, they are responsible for some of the most influential rock and roll of all time. Their music is infused with sincerity, irony, and spontaneity as seen in such hits as “I can’t tell you anything” and “Little White Lies.” They quickly became known for their short hair, short songs, and their red leather suits.

The Romantics were named Outstanding Pop/Rock Recording Artists by the Motor City Music Awards in 1994 and received the Distinguished Achievement Award at the Detroit Music Awards in 1999.

Fans will be taken back to their British Punk roots when the Romantics take the stage at the Tropicana Showroom on Friday, June 22nd at 9 pm. Tickets are available on www.ticketmaster.com, at the Tropicana Box Office, or by calling Ticketmaster at 1-800-745-3000.
